Iri diri, korikot diiri	Kononnya pada suatu masa dahulu, ada seorang gadis yang paling cantik. Dialah gadis yang dipuji-puji di kampung itu, iaitu Runggini. Apabila tiba masanya lelaki itu mahu meminang, datangkan dia di situ untuk meminang. Namanya ialah Bambayang. Bambayang ini juga lelaki yang paling kacak. Ketika Bambayang sudah mengikat tali pertunangan dengan Runggini, masih ada lelaki lain yang terpikat dengan Runggini, lalu menindih pinangan Bambayang. Runggini dipinang lagi oleh seorang lelaki yang bernama Ginsulunan. Mereka berdua telah meminang Runggini, tapi tidak saling mengetahui. Jika pada waktu mereka berselisih, belum timbul masalah. Ketika Bambayang datang di situ dan pulang, datang pula si Ginsulunan. Bambayang ini kacak tapi, kata cerita dongeng, dia miskin. Ginsulunan pula, dia tidaklah sekacak Bambayang, tapi dia kaya. Jadi, Runggini terpesong pada kekayaan Ginsulunan dan kadang-kadang terlupa kepada Bambayang. Ginsulunan yang selalu dirinduinya sebab dia kaya, tapi kacaknya kurang. Tiba-tiba pada suatu hari mereka telah datang di sana dalam masa yang sama. Ginsulunan datang, Bambayang juga datang. Apabila	Once upon a time, there was a girl who was extremely pretty. Her name was Runggini, and she was praised by everyone. When a man named Bambayang felt like getting engaged, he came there to attempt to get engaged. Bambayang was handsome. He proposed to the girl and she liked him, but there was another man who wanted Runggini who was the second to attempt engagement to her. Another man came to propose named Ginsulunan. Both of them proposed to Runggini, but neither of them knew about the other. If they would come at different times there would not be a problem. When Bambayang had gone home only then Ginsulunan would come. Bambayang was handsome but he had a drawback; he was poor. Ginsulunan wasn't really handsome but he was rich. So Runggini was lost by prioritizing riches, and would forget Bambayang. She remembered Ginsulunan because he was rich, but not so handsome. One day the men both arrived there at once – Ginsulunan and Bambayang came at the same time. When

Apabila yang lainnya jemu berdiri dan berlagu, berdirilah kedua-dua mereka. Bambayang dan Ginsulunan saling berpaut tangan. Apabila Bambayang berkata, ia berbunyi begini, “Gin..su..lu..nan..” katanya, “Gin..su..lu..nan, pada hari esok, akan mengalir emas di perkaran rumah Runggini,” katanya. Kemudian menjawablah Ginsulunan, “Bamba...a..yang... pada hari esok, akan mengalir emas di perkaran rumah Runggini,” jawab Ginsulunan. Tidak diketahui apakah maksud mereka. Ayatnya ringkas sahaja. Selepas itu, mereka berdua saling berpaut tangan mengelilingi tempat itu, kemudian sama-sama duduk. Pada waktu itu, hari sudah hampir pagi. Oleh itu, apabila hari sudah pagi, mereka terus menangkap Runggini. Bambayang di sebelah kanan Runggini, Ginsulunan di sebelah kiri Runggini, dengan memegang tangan. Kemudian membawa ke perkaran rumah. Mereka menarik pedang, kemudian membela Runggini dari kepala. Mereka membela Runggini dalam dua bahagian. Tambahan pula, mereka tidak dapat ditegah sebab mereka yang berkuasa pada zaman dahulu. Kalau hal seperti itu, mereka yang berkuasa. Orang-tua Runggini pun tidak dapat menegah mereka sebab mereka berdualah yang berkuasa. Setelah itu, mereka memegang tangan Runggini lalu berlawan pedang. Mereka menjadikan Runggini sebagai perisai.	night arrived (since neither of them left), they arranged a party. When other people had had enough of singing, the two of them stood up. Bambayang and Ginsulunan stood. Bambayang and Ginsulunan hooked arms. Bambayang said, “Gin-su-lu-nan, Gin-su-lu-nan, tomorrow gold will run in Runggini’s yard.” Ginsulunan responded, “Bam-ba-yang, tomorrow gold will flow in the yard of Runggini.” It was unknown what they meant. It was a short song. When that was done, they hooked elbows and sat down. It was nearly dawn at that point. As soon as it got light out, they grabbed Runggini, with Bambayang on her right and Ginsulunan on the left, holding her arms. They brought her to the yard. They pulled out their swords, and split her from the head down. They split her right down the middle. No one could stop them because they were among the rulers in that era. When doing things like that they were in charge. The parents of Runggini couldn’t forbid them, because those two were the rulers. Each holding her hand, they began sword fighting. Runggini was used as a shield. As they went on sword-

Itulah riwayat hidup Runggini. Rungginilah gadis yang paling cantik di dunia. Jadi, itulah sebabnya mereka sanggup membelah Runggini, dan dijadikan perisai semasa berlawan pedang.	fighting, Runggini was cut apart, and they both died, Bambayang and Ginsulunan. That's the story of Runggini. She was the most beautiful woman in the world. So that's what they did, they were willing to split her in two, and used her body as a shield.
